

120 NEW ON THE SHELF

San Diego Pretzel Co., San Diego, CA, introduced its hand-crafted, old-fashioned, Bavarian-style pretzel. The pretzels are proofed overnight in a chilled room to develop savory texture and Old World flavor. One 2-serving pretzel contains 170 to 200 Cal. The pretzels are available in Mexican Jalapeno, Organic Multi-grain, Twisted Traditional and Sugary Cinnamon varieties. www.sandiegopretzel.com

The Bachman Company,

Reading, PA, added gluten-free Treasure Puffs to its line of multi-grain snacks. Made of individually puffed corn and rice, the puffs are slow baked and coated with a blend of aged white cheddar cheese. The trans-fat-free snack is also free of artificial colors, flavors and preservatives. www.bachmansnax.com

Inspired by the principles of Ayurveda, Komal Herbals, Sewickley, PA, introduced Kazana Super Nutrition bars. Each 1.58-oz bar contains praas, a tonic made with the Himalayan superfruit amalaki (amla berry). The raw food bars contain fruits, nuts, seeds, spices, ginger and turmeric. They are available in Chai, Mango Coconut, Cashew Curry, Pistachio and Cocoa Chip varieties. www.komalherbals.com

Indian Harvest, Bemidji, MN, offered a blend of its premium grains designed for breakfast. The Sunrise 100% whole-grain blend contains high-protein Kamut bulgur wheat, buckwheat groats, Colusari red rice, quinoa flakes and brown flaxseed. It cooks in 20 minutes. The blend can also be used for casseroles and vegetarian burgers, stuffing for poultry and meats, whole-grain salads or coatings. www.indianharvest.com

Kraft Foods, Northfield, IL, added Oreo Candy Bites to its line of portion-controlled 100 Cal snacks. The Oreo 100 Cal pack combines the taste of bite-sized Oreos wrapped in a chocolately candy shell. All 11 varieties of the Kraft 100 Cal packs are free of trans fat and cholesterol. www.kraftfoodservice.com

Michael Season's, Addison, IL, offered two new varieties in its better-for-you snack line.
